

Memorandum of Agreement
Appointment-Based Tutors

Preamble

The parties agree that faculty (full-time, part-time or adjunct) and staff are eligible to serve as appointment-based tutors through the Stockton Tutoring Center in any subject for which they are qualified, so long as they do not tutor students who are currently enrolled in any of their courses. We recognize the need for appointment-based tutoring to support inclusive student success and on-time graduation as Stockton continues to grow

[REDACTED]

When the following conditions are met, Stockton faculty and staff may be hired and compensated as Appointment Based Tutors in accordance with this MOA:

[REDACTED]

Term

This Agreement shall remain in full force and effect from this date until June 30, 2024 unless modified by changes in the Master Agreement or unless a new MOA replaces this one. The Agreement shall automatically be renewed from year to year thereafter, unless either party shall give to the other party written notice of its desire to terminate, modify, or amend this Agreement. Said notice shall be given to the other party in writing no later than 30 days prior to June 30, 2022, or 30 days prior to June 30 of any succeeding year for which this Agreement is automatically renewed.

IN WITNESS THEREOF the University and the Stockton Federation of Teachers have caused
