committees).

Dual Credit Designee is an administrator appointed by the Provost to manage the dual credit program.

Dual Credit Courses are defined by the following criteria: They are (1) regular

[REDACTED]

University courses that are taught in area high schools by qualified high school teachers. (2)

[REDACTED]

Virtual meetings may be conducted via teleconference or video conferencing, as elected by mutual agreement of the dual credit coach and qualified high school teacher.

Dual credit coaches who are regular or adjunct faculty may cover up to a maximum of two (2) different dual credit courses per year in area public high schools and coach no more than five (5) dual course courses or sections with five (5) qualified high school teachers. Any combination that equals fewer than two (2) dual credit courses and five (5) high school teachers is acceptable. Exceptions to this limit will be allowed only in cases where there is no other faculty or professional staff member qualified or available to coach the given course. Such exceptions must be approved by the appropriate program faculty.

Dual credit consortium leaders who are regular faculty or adjuncts in a high school dual credit consortium will receive payment based on the participation level by qualified high school teachers offering qualified dual credit courses:

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the University and the Stockton Federation of Teachers have caused this Memorandum of Agreement to be executed this 13th day of December, 2019.
