StocktonPeer Financial Education Program PickingYour First Credit Card

Picking your first credit card is actually very simple when you know what to look for and how to look. We are here to aid and assist in any way we can, helping to make a smart and period in the control of the control

Here are the things you should keep in mind when shopping for a card:

Be a comparative shopper

Use and live by the Rule of 3

Be aware of the difficulty as a college studenbtain a high valued carduch as American Express or MasterCard

Get to know the rates and bonuses with each, sauch as frequent/fir miles and reward points

If you have all those things in mind when buying a card then you'rel set....

Not sure whatsome of those terms mæn above? Don't sweat ItHere's a list of terms that you can look for and will be important whenapplying for your first creditcard.

Comparative ShopperBeing a savvy shopper and comparing before you b

Rule of Three Always compare 3 of any item when shopping an Exple: 3 cars, cards, shoes

APR- AnnualPercentageRate: the annual rate of interest; the total interest to be paid in a year divided by the balance due

Rewards Rewards credit cards let you earn cash back, free travel, or other perks when you use your card. Choose rewards you'll actually use and watch out for cards with high annual fees or interest rates.

Fees Charges for use and ownership of your credit card

Debt-Somethinghat is owed or that one is bound to pay to or perform for another