OPINION: AS GOES CHRISTIE, SO GOES THE 2017 REPUBLICAN GOVERNOR'S RACE

CARL GORDON | MARCH 31, 2016

If Christie can regain some credibility, there is a chance of a GOP candidate for

His presence has been so overwhelming suffocating his critics grumble that he transcended and overshadowed party identification. The state party ceased to function as a traditional statewide organization and morphed instead into a personality driven Christie Party.

The Republican brand became the Christie brand, its legitimacy rising or falling based on the governor's performance and popul

Who knows? Perhaps she'll be the one to eventually snap the "give the other side a chance" streak.
