Galloway, NJ - Community volunteers, alumni and families of Stockton University students, faculty and staff are invited to join the university's 12th annual Martin Luther King Day of Service on Monday, Jan. 18, 2016, with projects at Stockton locations in Atlantic, Cape May and Ocean counties.

Nearly 1,000 volunteers turned out for the 2015 event, and organizers want to break that record with a call to "Take a Day ON!" Volunteers may choose which activity and location are most convenient for them after checking in at the corresponding Stockton location. They will need to provide their own transportation to sites. Volunteers can register that day – but pre-registration is preferred. For more information and to pre-register, visit Stockton.edu/MLKday.

Participants also are encouraged to use the hashtag #StocktonMLK when posting about the experience on twitter and facebook.

Activities will be held at the Galloway main campus and at the university's instructional sites in Manahawkin, Hammonton and Woodbine, with some activities then moving to other sites. More information will be available at Stockton.edu/MLKday as schedules become firm.
