

JOINT PRESS RELEASE

FALL 2009 STOCKTON COURSES OFFERED IN HAMMONTON

ART OF NEW JERSEY (GAH 2276-091)

Mondays 6:30-9:30PM

Professor: Kate Ogden CREDITS: 4

This course provides an introduction to American art with a focus on New Jersey examples. We will concentrate on major developments and styles in art, with an emphasis on artists who lived or worked in the Garden State and buildings located in New Jersey. A variety of forms will be considered including painting, sculpture, architecture, prints, photography, and crafts, as well as the historical setting in which they were created. This is an excellent introductory course to art for non-art majors.

THE COMPUTER AS AN ART TOOL (ARTV 1125-001)

Mondays & Wednesdays 6:00-8:30PM

Professor: Dan Gambert CREDITS: 4

Introduces students to the fundamental principles of the computer and peripheral devices in the production of art and related forms of visual communication.

BEGINNING SPANISH I (LANG 1240-004)

Tuesdays & Thursdays 6:00-7:50PM

Professor: Joseph Strazzeri CREDITS: 4

Spoken and written Spanish for students with no previous training in this subject, stressing systematic practice in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, as well as intensive work in phonology, morphology, and syntax; not intended for students with training beyond the second term of high school Spanish.
