Galloway Township, NJ- Dr. Nili Keren will discuss the past, present and future of Israel, which celebrates 65 years of independence this year, at a lecture sponsored by The Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey and the Milton and Betty Katz Jewish Community Center.

The free public lecture "The State of Israel at 65: Where are we headed?" will be held on Tuesday, April 23 at 7 p.m. in the Katz JCC, located at 501 North Jerome Ave., Margate.

Dr. Nili Keren is the Ida E. King Distinguished Visiting Professor of Holocaust Studies this year at Stockton College. Dr. Keren, who was born in Israel, said that the presentation will focus on Israel's long past and interesting present as well as the future, including an analysis of Israel's recent elections. The discussion will include a question and answer session.

The lecture is free and open to the public. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information, call 609-652-4699.
