

Stockton Provost Kesselman's Workshop Helps Get You Through College Admissions Process

Free Event for Students, Parents Oct. 8 at Campus Center

For Immediate Release

Friday, Sept. 19, 2014

Contact: Maryjane Briant
News and Media Relations Director
Galloway Township, NJ 08240
Maryjane.Briant@stockton.edu
(609) 652-4593

Galloway Township, NJ- The college admissions process can seem overwhelming, but high school students and their parents can learn more about how to get in and pay for a college education on pre-1.9 8, 2014 in the College of New Jersey.

Provost, will de-mystify the process at the workshop, which covers Financial Aid and NCAA Athletics.”

Refreshments will be served at 6:30 p.m.; the workshop will discuss loans and scholarships and explain the early action, rolling admission and

-more-

-continued from page 1-

- Give an overview of financial aid, including scholarships, grants, work programs and loans, and outline the process for completing applications;
- Explain the many acronyms associated with the financial aid process such as: FAFSA, CSS profile, SAR, EFC and COA.
- Discuss the NCAA's role in college admissions and scholarship programs.

To register for this event, please visit Stockton's Educational Technology Training Center (ETTC) web site at www.ettc.net. (Registration is recommended, but not required.)

Dr. Kesselman is an authority on college admissions and financial aid. Prior to his appointment as provost and executive vice president, Dr. Kesselman served as Stockton's dean of the School of Education, interim vice president for Administration and Finance, vice president for Student Affairs and chief executive officer of the Southern Regional Institute and Educational Technology Training Center (SRI & ETTC.)

#