needed to be brought back to our campus, but with some modifications. In a few months' time, the club underwent a name change, a perception change, and a change of values. Thus LLU was reborn but this time as the Latin American Student Association.

"All in all, my vision for LASA is to give the Stockton community a place to preserve, showcase, and expand our Latino culture," said Cabrera. He feels he is helping to establish an organization that will continue growing, since the leadership team is made up of freshman and sophomores, with him as president.

The club holds programs including Fiesta Night and Beyond the Stereotype. While Fiesta Night is
