Galloway Township , NJ- Do you know any elementary or middle school students who are catching spring fever? Just add in some pitching, hitting and running to a warm day with a sunny, blue sky and you'll get the MLB Pitch, Hit and Run competition, a free one-day event for boys and girls ages 7-14. Stockton's Student Veteran Organization, Kappa Sigma fraternity and Stockton's Women's Softball team are hosting this year's MLB Pitch, Hit and Run competition on Sunday, April 11, 2010 from detailed <http://inraweb.stockton.edu/campusmap> .

Winners of the local MLB Pitch, Hit and Run competition at Stockton will advance to a sectional competition held in mid May to early June. Winners of sectionals move on to a MLB Team Championship held at one of the 30 major league ballparks. Finally, the winners of the team championship advance to the National Finals 2010 MLB All-Star Week, which is an all-expenses paid trip to Anaheim, California for the 2010 All-Star Game and a schedule of exciting activities.

Sign-ups for the competition will take place on-site on the day of the competition. For further information, contact Tom O'Donnell at 609-652-4676.
