Galloway Township, NJ — Noted author Nicholas Sparks will present the 2007 Student Senate Lecture. This event open to the public.

Sparks, who wrote such popular works as The Notebook, Message in a Bottle and A Walk to Remember, all of which were adapted as feature films, will appear Tuesday, April 17, 2007 at The Sports Center on the Galloway Township campus. Doors will open at 6 p.m. for the 7 p.m. lecture.

“We are excited to have a speaker of the stature of Nicholas Sparks and we’re looking forward to welcoming him to the College,” Student Senate President Nick Sena said. “This lecture will be joining a long list of great Student Senate Lecture Series events that included Spike Lee, Coretta Scott King, Michael Moore and Robert F. Kennedy, Jr.”

Tickets to the event are $3 for members of the Stockton community and $8 for the general public. Tickets may be purchased in person at the Stockton College Performing Arts Center Box Office. For more information, call (609) 652-9000.
