

'Leavin g Your Legacy: The Last Lecture ,' Presented by Stockton Center on Successful Aging Nov. 19

Notre Dame Professor Edward F. Hums to Give 10th Annual Hesburgh Lecture

For Immediate Release

Wednesday, November 02, 2016

Contact: Maryjane Briant
News and Media Relations Director
Galloway , N.J. 08205
Maryjane.Briant @stockton.edu
(609) 652-4593
stockton.edu/media

Galloway , N.J. - The Stockton Center on Successful Aging is sponsoring, in collaboration with the South Jersey Notre Dame Club and Notre Dame Alumni Association, SCOSA's 10th Annual Hesburgh Lecture: "Leaving Your Legacy: the Last Lecture," on Saturday, Nov. 19, from 2 -3 p.m. in Room L-112, Stockton University, 101 Vera King Farris Drive, Galloway, N.J.

This lecture is a shortened version of the "Last Lecture" presented by Edward F. Hums, M.B.A., Teaching Professor, Accountancy, Mendoza School of Business, University of Notre Dame by invitation of Notre Dame Student Government in 2010. It is modeled on the original "last lecture" presented by the late Randy Pausch, a professor of computer science, human-computer interaction, and design at Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh in 2007.

A "last lecture" asks the speaker to answer one question in the form of an engaging public lecture: "If this were your

-continued from page 1 -

Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching. In 2006, Hums was profiled in Businessweek as one of America's favorite business professors. In 2013, he and his wife, Shirley, became Notre Dame's first faculty-in-residence family.

This workshop is free and open to the public. For more information, contact David Burdick at 609-652-4311.

Visit the SCOSA website at www.stockton.edu/scosa for updates and cancellation procedures.

For more information about Stockton University, visit Stockton.edu.

#