Forward Looking Information

This release includes “forward looking statements” intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You can identify these statements by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. These statements contain words such as “if,” “will,” “believe,” “intent,” “pending,” or the negative or other variations thereof or comparable terminology. In particular, they include statements relating to the proposed sale of Showboat Atlantic City by Caesars to Stockton College. Completion of the sale of Showboat Atlantic City is subject to a number of risks and uncertainties and we cannot assure you that the sale will be completed. Among these risks and uncertainties are completion of due diligence by Stockton College, the parties’ ability to negotiate and mutually agree upon definitive sale documentation and any conditions to closing that may be set forth in any definitive sale documentation. Any forward looking statements are made pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and, as such, speak only as of the date made. Caesars disclaims any obligation to update the following statements. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward looking statements, which
