Galloway, NJ - Stockton's visual arts faculty is pleased to announce an exhibition of their spring Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) graduates from the Studies in the Arts program within the School of Arts and Humanities. The exhibition will be on display from April 12 -28. The opening reception to meet the artists will be held from 1- 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 12 in the Stockton University Art Gallery on the main Galloway campus. There is no admission fee and this event is open to the public.

This April, 16 students will be displaying their photography, painting and visual communications projects in both the upper and lower galleries. The work of these 10 visual communication students will be in the upper gallery: Ivelies Burgos of Vineland, Daviel Byrd of Penns Grove, Briana Caravella of South Toms River, Cody Cochran of Toms River, Nolan Emme of Iselin, Ryan Purdy of Mays Landing, Gurmeet Singh of Manchester, Dylan Stewart of Swedesboro, Deanna Tusso of Hammonton, and Nicole Way of Jackson. In the lower gallery, the work of photographers Charles Estergren of Egg Harbor Township, Dariany Pena of Mine Hill, Cara Salerno of North Brunswick, and Kelianna Sharkey of Turnersville will be on display with paintings by Anne Jancsar of Marlton and Concetta Stoto of Galloway.

The Stockton University Art Gallery is in L-wing, adjacent to the Performing Arts Center. It is free and open to the public seven days per week from 12 to 7:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 12 to 4:30 p.m. on Sunday.
