Galloway, NJ - Stockton University is partnering with AtlantiCare and the Rothman Institute to host a Women's Health Fair on Friday, March 11 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the university's Manahawkin Instructional Site.

AtlantiCare will conduct Body Mass Index screenings and provide health and wellness information. The Rothman Institute will provide information on osteoporosis at this free, public resource fair.

Stockton's Gina McGuire will present a program titled, "Creativity and Your Health," and Anthony Dissen, also of Stockton, will present holistic approaches to stress management. Rose McCarthy, a registered nurse from AtlantiCare's Heart Institute, will discuss how to recognize early heart attack signs and symptoms. Dr. Claire Smart of AtlantiCare, who has 19 years of nursing and 12 years of nurse-midwifery experience, will discuss gynecological preventative care guidelines.

Admission is free and lunch will be provided at the site, located at 712 E. Bay Ave. in Manahawkin, N.J. Attendees are asked to RSVP to 609-626-3883.
