

STOCKTON

Stockton Economic Impact Study Shows College Provides More than $442 Million Total Economic Benefit to Region, NJ

Report Shows Strong Results Impact of Direct Spending, Alumni Earning, Job Creation and More

For Immediate Release

Thursday, July 12, 2012

Contact: Tim Kelly
Office of Public Relations
Galloway Township, NJ 08240
Tim.Kelly@stockton.edu
(609) 652-4950

Galloway, NJ – The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey (RSCNJ) has released a new report titled "The Economic Impact of the Richard Stockton College of New Jersey" which shows that the college provides more than $442 million in total economic benefit to the region, including direct spending, alumni earnings, job creation and more.

Stockton Economic Impact Study/page 2

The report revealed that Stockton, which recently celebrated its 40th Anniversary of Teaching, had nearly doubled its economic impact since a 2005 report.

“Stockton’s economic impact on the region means a great deal to the growth, vitality and quality of life to southern New Jersey and the entire state,” Dr. Saatkamp said. “Conversely, the growth, vitality and quality of life of the region nurtures Stockton’s growth. This report quantifies and places the College’s contributions in a relatable context.”

Some of the report’s highlights:

Direct Spending

During fiscal year 2011, Stockton invested nearly $33 million in capital improvements, and purchased more than $21 million in goods and services. As a result, there was an outlay in excess of $54 million in total non-payroll expenses, 82 percent of which went to vendors based in New Jersey. -1.141 Td [(D)3(i)-(on()Tj EMC[(pay)9(r)-6(olB0.141 Td6400.Tw 3.261

