

Ribbon Cutting Ceremony Officially Dedicates Kramer Hall

Volume 2, Issue 23

February 1, 2013

Special points of interest:

Ribbon Cutting Ceremony Officially Dedicates Kramer Hall

SFT Union Office Receives Updates

Graphics Brings Home Gold

Deputy Chief of Police Joe Mangiello Retires

Laurie Shanderson Wins Diva Medal at Half Marathon

Coach Gerry Matthews Inducted into NJSWA Hall of Fame

The ribbon cutting ceremony extended a little deeper Thursday, January 31, after the Board of Trustees and President Herman Saatkamp cut the ribbon to dedicate our newest instructional site in Hammonton Kramer Hall.

Students, faculty, staff, and community members gathered at 30 Front Street in front of the 13,620-square-foot building that was built in 1959 as the Bertino/National Garment Factory. The building was named after Lynn and Charles Kramer for their

He noted that the mighty pillars of the garment factory hold a rich history that students and faculty will feel immediately when they enter the now modern facility. There are limitless academic and cultural pursuits in the near future for the Stockton community and Hammonton.

The building was named after Lynn and Charles Kramer for their

---

---

Anne Liberto, whose grandmother purchased the building and owned and operated the former factory, shared her childhood memories. "I [fYk i d ]b this building. As a kid, I played with scraps of fabric, Ubx Uq U hYYbU[ Yf, I k cf_YX ]b h\Y Vi ]X]b[ ,i g\Y fY-called.

---

Stockton Federation of Teachers Union Office Receives Updates

---

Graphics Brings Home Gold

Bf][ \h Vc`X, UbX VYUWmXYgW]VY SUFUU MYgg]bUf] dcghYf XYg][ b dfca ch]b[ `Ugh] a a Yf]g BUFXk U_ gRYYh h\YUHyf Yj Ybh in Cape May, New Jersey. The design caught the eyes of the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District II (CASE DII) AWw`UXYg Cca a ]HhYY, k \JW Uk UfXYX MYgg]bUf] poster a GOLD accolade in the Visual Design in Print category.

ÎI Ua_ gc `bcfYX, g`cW_YX, UbX h`f]`YX,Î MYgg]bUgU]X. ÎTYV pieces I submitted were for the School of Arts and Humanities event The Bardwalk. Ihk Ug Uj YfmZ b dfc`YVh`c k cf_ cb.Î

Messina, a 2008 [ fUXi UHY cZShcW`hcb]g V]g] U Afhg Cca a i - nication program, has been working as a graphic designer in the Office of External Affairs for the past six years, first as a student and then as an employee.

The CASE DII Accolades Awards program includes 37 different categories, including alumni relations, communications, design, grant writing, magazines, marketing, news writing, photography and publications. Sarah Messina and the rest of the award recipients will be recognized at the Accolades Awards reception during the District II Annual Conference on March 4, 2013, in Pittsburgh, PA. A full list of the categories and 2013 winners can be found here.

Sarah Messina's Bardwalk poster won the 2013 Gold accolade in the Visual Design in Print category from the CASE DII Accolades Committee.

Deputy Chief of Police Joe Mangiello Retires

Joe Mangiello, Deputy Chief of Police UbX U MUnZ`ck Yf U'i a , `c]bYX ShcW`hcb]g police force in 1973, just two years after the Stockton Police Department was organized. Now, four decades later, the Stockton community is helping Mangiello to celebrate his retirement.

On January 11, more than 100 colleagues gathered in the Campus Center to wish him well. Philip Ellmore, Chief Development Officer, spoke at the event, and Charles Richvasky, who retired from the Police Department last year, served as MC. A life-sized portrait of Mangiello was on display for guests to sign.

Mangiello was featured in the 40th anniversary edition of Stockton Now, the Cc`Y[ Yf]g cb]b]y a U[ Uh]bY. RYUX h`Y Ufh] cle here.

A "then & now" look at Stockton Deputy Chief of Police, Joe Mangiello, in 1973 when he first joined the Police Department and in 2012 before retiring.

---

---

Laurie Shanderson Wins Diva Medal at Half Marathon

When she crossed the finish line, Laurie Shanderson, Assistant Dean of the School of Health Sciences, was wearing a feather boa and a tiara. Shanderson completed the Long Island Divas Half Marathon with a personal best.

Shanderson said. She has already signed up for the October 2013 half marathon and will start training soon.

The boas and tiaras are given to runners during the last mile to keep them fighting to finish strong. Finishers are rewarded with champagne, roses and a Diva medal with bling. However, it was a shirt signed by everyone she was running for and supporting that helped Shanderson complete the race with her best time to-date.

School of Health Sciences Assistant Dean, Laurie Shanderson, poses with the goodies given out post-Divas Run.

---

Coach Gerry Matthews Inducted into NJSWA Hall of Fame

Association during their 77th Annual Anniversary Banquet held on January 20 in Edison, NJ. Matthews, who was inducted into the NJSWA Hall of Fame, was one of 17 honorees at the event, a group that included USA Wrestling coach Scott Swickard, former NHL referee Kerry Fraser and Rutgers football coach Kyle Flood.

Matthews recorded his 515th career victory on November 17, 2011, passing legendary Princeton head coach Pete Carril for the all-time wins record for New Jersey collegiate basketball.

Send Us Your News!

We want to know about things going on in the Stockton community. Do you have an unusual hobby? Did one of your co-workers win an award or perform outstanding public service? Births, weddings, graduations and the like are all good things to submit to the Stockton Times.

To contact the editor, please call (609) 652-4790 or e-mail Stocktontimes@stockton.edu.

