

The Stockton es

OUR CITY

JANUARY 7, 2016 VOLUME 5 ISSUE NO. 11

Stockton Gradf44750.049wes 700 at Commencement struggle” to become a college graduate, the first ever in her family.

Eventually, she achieved enough success in her career to be sitting in a beautiful, big house with an acreage

Stockton University Graduates 700 at Commencement Continued

Reid-Merritt was presented with Stockton's Distinguished Service Award by Trustee Raymond Ciccone, a 1979 alumnus, who cited her "outstanding leadership and service," and "her respected body of work as an author, educator, scholar as well as her community activism as chairperson of the Fannie Lou Hamer National Statue Committee and founder Fannie Lou Hamer anCctites DLoRights JIEMC /Span MCID664BDC BT W 11 0 0 11 3.72 728.173 Symposium.e.(E

Office of Institutional Diversity & Equity Launches New Title IX Website

The Office of Institutional Diversity & Equity established a _____

Construction Corner: Pomona Road Parking Lot Project to Commence

Construction activities associated with the Pomona Road parking lot project will begin this month. The first phase of the project will create 493 parking spaces. The parking lot will feature ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) compliant spaces.

Send Us Your News!

