Stockton Tuition, Fees Held to 2 Percent Increase for 2016-17

Stockton University's Board of Trustees voted on July 6 to keep an increase in tuition and fees to 2 percent for the 2016-17 academic year and the 2017 summer semester.

For full-time undergraduates who live in New Jersey, the flat rate tuition will increase by $82.69 per semester to $4,217.33.

Educational and general fees were also held to a 2 percent increase, which for an in-state, full-time undergraduate is a rise of $36.14, to $1,842.93. The facilities fee will rise by $9.37 for undergraduates, to $477.88.

For full-time post-baccalaureate, master's and post-master's candidates who live in-state, tuition will increase by $11.64 per credit hour, to $593.64.

For in-state doctoral candidates, tuition will increase by $12.80 per credit hour to $653. All graduate school students' edu-
