

- College Signs Pact with A.C.
Historical Waterfront Foundation
-

College Welcomes New Staff Members in Various Departments

Editor's note: More than 50 new staff members have joined the Stockton community. We will feature these staff members in the Times as more information becomes available. Welcome!

joins Stockton as the new head coach for Women's Lacrosse. Williams graduated from Long Island University, C.W. Post (now referred to as LIU Post) in 2010 with a degree in Childhood Education. She went on to coach at Colby College in Waterville, ME from 2011-2013. Williams' hobbies include fitness and she recently completed the Ocean City Half Marathon.

joins the Athletic staff full time after working part time as an Athletic Trainer at Stockton for 10 years. She brings with her experience working in various settings including the high school, clinical, and semi-professional levels. She received both her BS and MEd from Temple University in Philadelphia, where she is from originally.

is working in the Finance department at Georgian Court University for about 12 years. She has about 30 years' experience in various industries from a small mom & pop place to a tax manager at Citibank. Carr was a Texas state auditor upon graduation from Rutgers College in Economics with an Accounting concentration. She is currently an adjunct for both Georgian Court and Ocean County College, teaching various accounting courses at the undergraduate and graduate level.

is a clerk typist in Accounts Payable, where she worked as a student worker for two years. She is currently a senior at Stockton, where she majors in Business Marketing.

Send Us Your News!

We want to know about things going on in the Stockton community. Do you have an unusual hobby? Did one of your co-workers win an award or perform outstanding public service? Births, weddings, graduations and the like are
