Student Welfare

Brian Braterie reported that he met with the Stockton Retention Committee to discuss with administrators ways to attract transfer students and have them stay with the college until graduation. One proposal was to not give the students false information on what the college offers in terms of academic programs.

Frank asked what programs he was referring to

Brian used Stockton's music program as an example

Brian then stated that the committee discussed several issues related to the Student Residents Association. The laundry rooms have had several incidences of stolen clothes and now students are requesting a webcam in order to prevent further problems.

Jenny reported that a proposal was brought asking that cameras be placed in North and West Deaking Lots in order to prevent more students' cars from being stolen. He stated that the committee will endorse the proposal and will be looking further into it.

Brian Ackerman reported that he met with the Residential Life Faculty Council and had individual students meeting with complex questions lack of privacy. They also discussed how to contact more students to do focus groups.

Dawn welcomed Frank Matthews to the committee.

Dawn stated that the committee will be tabling for the Undecided
Fair and helping students find their precursors

Announcements/Comments from the Public:

Eileen Conran-Folks, Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs, and the Dean of Students came as student advocates and developing a Request for Proposal (RFP) for both our Bookstore contract and our Food Service contract. To ensure transparency in this process, the Dean of Students will schedule a meeting with Mrs. Conran, student leaders, Matt Allen, Vice President for Administration and Finance, and Trish Kravtchik, Corporate Liaison & Special Project/Finance, by mid November.

Student Dean's Associate, Dean of Students, thanked students for their participation on campus. The committee believes that their input, especially on Rights and Responsibilities, is available if students have questions regarding policies and their help with the Hero Campaign.

Stacy McIntosh, Associate Director of the College Center stated that she would like to meet with Harry Maurice, Assistant Director of Student

Elaine Grant, Director of Special Projects and Summer and on the website

Adjournment: Ashley adjourned the meeting at 4:55 p.m.
