Ar-Rasheed will educate himself and others as to why meals are defined as only certain items rather than by the students. He is also working to add the option of toilet seat covers to campus restrooms with Marina and Plant Management, and wants to involve the Wellness Center to promote them and debunk certain rumors.

First and foremost, the Student Affairs Committee has a new addition, Katelynn Torcato. She will mainly work with Marina and Cristian to aid in the areas heavy with complaints: telecommunications, athletics, and plant management.

Cristian and Katelynn will be meeting with Athletics shortly to discuss some of the issues, namely, old or damaged equipment, and gym etiquette.

Marina

of solar powered lights to illuminate the flags while dark. Marina and Katelynn will be reaching out to plant management for further replacing and cleaning of furniture in the main academic building, and a program for safely disposing of certain potentially toxic items such as batteries, cell phones, laptops, and ink cartridges.

Murphy will meet with Lt. Parker, the acting police chief, to discuss updates from campus police. She will also be meeting with Trish Krevetski for updates sometime this week, but updates via email included a Galloway shopping service in the works, and new businesses such as the Shore Diner and Yoga Nine Studios were added to the osprey card
